Director's Corner:

Book Fair and Bake Sale- What a great event! It was fun to start it off on the Sunday as it coincided with the Teacher Appreciation Service here at CPC. Many thanks to the chairpersons of the Book Fair: Courtney Stafford, Meg Gabriele and Blair Sheehan and to the Bake Sale chairpersons: Katie Lindquist and Emily Dingle, and to all their volunteers. The books and snacks that were donated to each classroom are greatly appreciated. I personally was very moved and excited about all the books that were donated to the CJ Flintosh Library!! Can't wait to read them and get them into circulation for the children to take home!

I appreciated seeing so many families take time from their busy Sundays to join us for the Service. The children sang beautifully! A very fun day!

School News:

End of Year Survey - Within the month of May you will receive an email asking you to take a few minutes to complete our survey online. We would love to have 100% participation to truly know your opinion and your ideas. So many of our programs came from suggestions on past surveys. It is not always the following year that we can implement your thoughts, but know your ideas are not forgotten! Again, thank you so much for your time!

End of Year Programs – Mark your calendars for your child’s last day of school There will be classroom parties for each on the last day with early dismissal following the parties. The 4’s and Kindergartens have special programs (music program for the 4’s at 9:30am and a Play for the Kindergartens at 11:00am) for families to attend on the last day, June 6th, again with class parties immediately following. All classes will have early dismissal on their last day following the class parties.

CPC CAMP WEEK: There are some spots left. Please get your registration forms in. Sharon Dougherty and Ginny Ilsley, the Co-Directors, are diligently working with their camp teaching team lining up a different theme for each day. Those registered will be receiving an email before it begins with more information!

Spring Time with CPC WNS&K Parents’ Organization:

It looks like Spring has finally decided to arrive - we hope everyone has been enjoying this nice weather. It’s hard to believe that the end of the school year is quickly approaching. Please keep your calendars open for the remaining CPC PO-sponsored events that are coming up soon!

A huge thank you goes out to the Book Fair co-chairs; Courtney Stafford, Meg Gabrielle, and Blair Sheehan, and the Bake Sale co-chairs; Katie Lindquist and Emily Dingle. Once again, these two committees out-did themselves! The basement was transformed thanks to awesome decorations, amazing artwork by the kids and books galore. And the bake sale featured delicious treats and savory dishes that were enjoyed by all. A lot of planning and preparation goes into both events and we are beyond appreciated of all the co-chairs and volunteers hard work. Also, thank you to all our families who contributed by buying books, baking and cooking, and buying delicious treats.

OUR UPCOMING EVENTS – Save These Dates:

Summit Shop & Support CPC - Tuesday May 7th through Saturday May 12th

Come shop and support CPC! Alexandra Kilby, a CPC mom and owner of The Silver Linings of Summit store has agreed to give a percentage of her sales to CPC. Perfect gifts for husbands and children to give for Mother’s Day! Willow Street, Sweet Nothings, and The Red Balloon have also graciously agreed to donate as well. Just mention you are from CPC and 10%-15% of your purchase will be donated to CPC.

Mom’s Night Out - Thursday May 17th 8-10pm

Check your email for the invitation to another great Mom’s Night Out. Heather Marotta has graciously offered to host at her home. Come catch up with old friends and meet some new ones while enjoying delicious drinks and food. Don’t miss this event - always a great time!

End of Year Picnic - Saturday June 2nd 11am-1pm

Fun and games at Memorial Field to celebrate the end of another school year. Please note the change of date to June 2nd. More details to follow in the upcoming weeks.

Happy Spring!
